Ann L. Wren

- Objective To leverage 20+ years of experience in early childhood development and various forms of the creative arts to inspire and draw out creative ideas, problem-solving solutions, and means of expression that lies within both children and adults.
- Experience
- 2005-2007 Westminster Presbyterian Church Greensboro, NC
Director of Children's Ministries
- Responsible for Christian education of 500+ children from ages 0-5th grade on two campuses and three different church-school hours
 - Created new entry points for volunteers to assist Children's Ministry such as Shepherding, Hands On Committee, Dream Team
 - Restructured Children's Ministries to provide necessary supervision of children and teaching of age-appropriate curriculum without overuse of current volunteers by creating Children's Worship Services and unifying the lessons and materials.
 - Added music and outreach service opportunities for children.
- 1995-2005 First Presbyterian Preschool Greensboro, NC
Preschool Atelierista
- Was an Atelierista, who plan activities with teachers and work with children to help them learn to express themselves in different media. Rather than teaching specific medium techniques, teachers observe how a child uses materials as a way of learning the child's thinking processes.
 - Taught 3-year-old classes.
 - Taught art and music to ages ranging from 6 months – kindergarten
 - Designed and executed after-school clay, drama, and music classes
- 1990–1994 First Presbyterian Weekday Preschool Greensboro, NC
Preschool Music/Movement Teacher
- Developed and implemented music and movement workshops for preschool-aged children.
- 1984–1990 Gainesville, FL
Preschool Music/Movement Business Owner
- Owned and operated a business that developed and implemented music and movement workshops for preschool-aged children. Several area preschools were regular clients.

1982-1984 Gainesville Country Day School Gainesville, FL
Music/Drama Specialist

- Developed and taught music and drama to preschoolers.
- University of Florida early education students regularly observed my classes to learn techniques and ways to introduce arts to young children

Education 1978–1981 Heidelberg College Tiffin, OH

- B.Mus. in vocal performance
- Double major in Communications and Theater Arts
- Studied voice post-graduation with Linda Spiker at University of Florida
- Actress of the Year award in 1979, 1980, and 1981
- Member of Philalethean Society, Concert Choir, and Alpha Psi Omega
