

Was the Reformed Tradition really started by a control freak?

Questions for thought....

- . "God is in charge." How does this seem like good news? Like bad news?
- . If you were in charge of the world, what would your rules look like?
- . How can living with rules help us participate in what God is doing in the world?
- . How are you a witness to God?
- . How are you a participant in God's work?
- . How can the church adapt to stay true to God's work in this time and place?
