

Why do we say we believe in "the holy catholic church" if we're not Catholic?

Questions for thought....

Based on John 17: 20 23

- . What are the different denominations in our community?
  - . How are they different? How are they the same?
- . What is the last argument you've had with a sibling or someone else in your family?
- . What makes you a family even when you disagree with each other?
- . What makes different congregations of different denominations all part of one holy catholic church?
- . Are Catholics a part of the holy catholic church? Are you a part of the holy catholic church? How do you know this?
