THRIVE for kids!

This week: read pages 142-143 of the Growing in God's Love Story Bible.

REFLECT

Why do you think this story was so important to the people who lived a really long time ago that they had to write it down?

Who do you know who tells the truth even when it's hard?

CONNECT

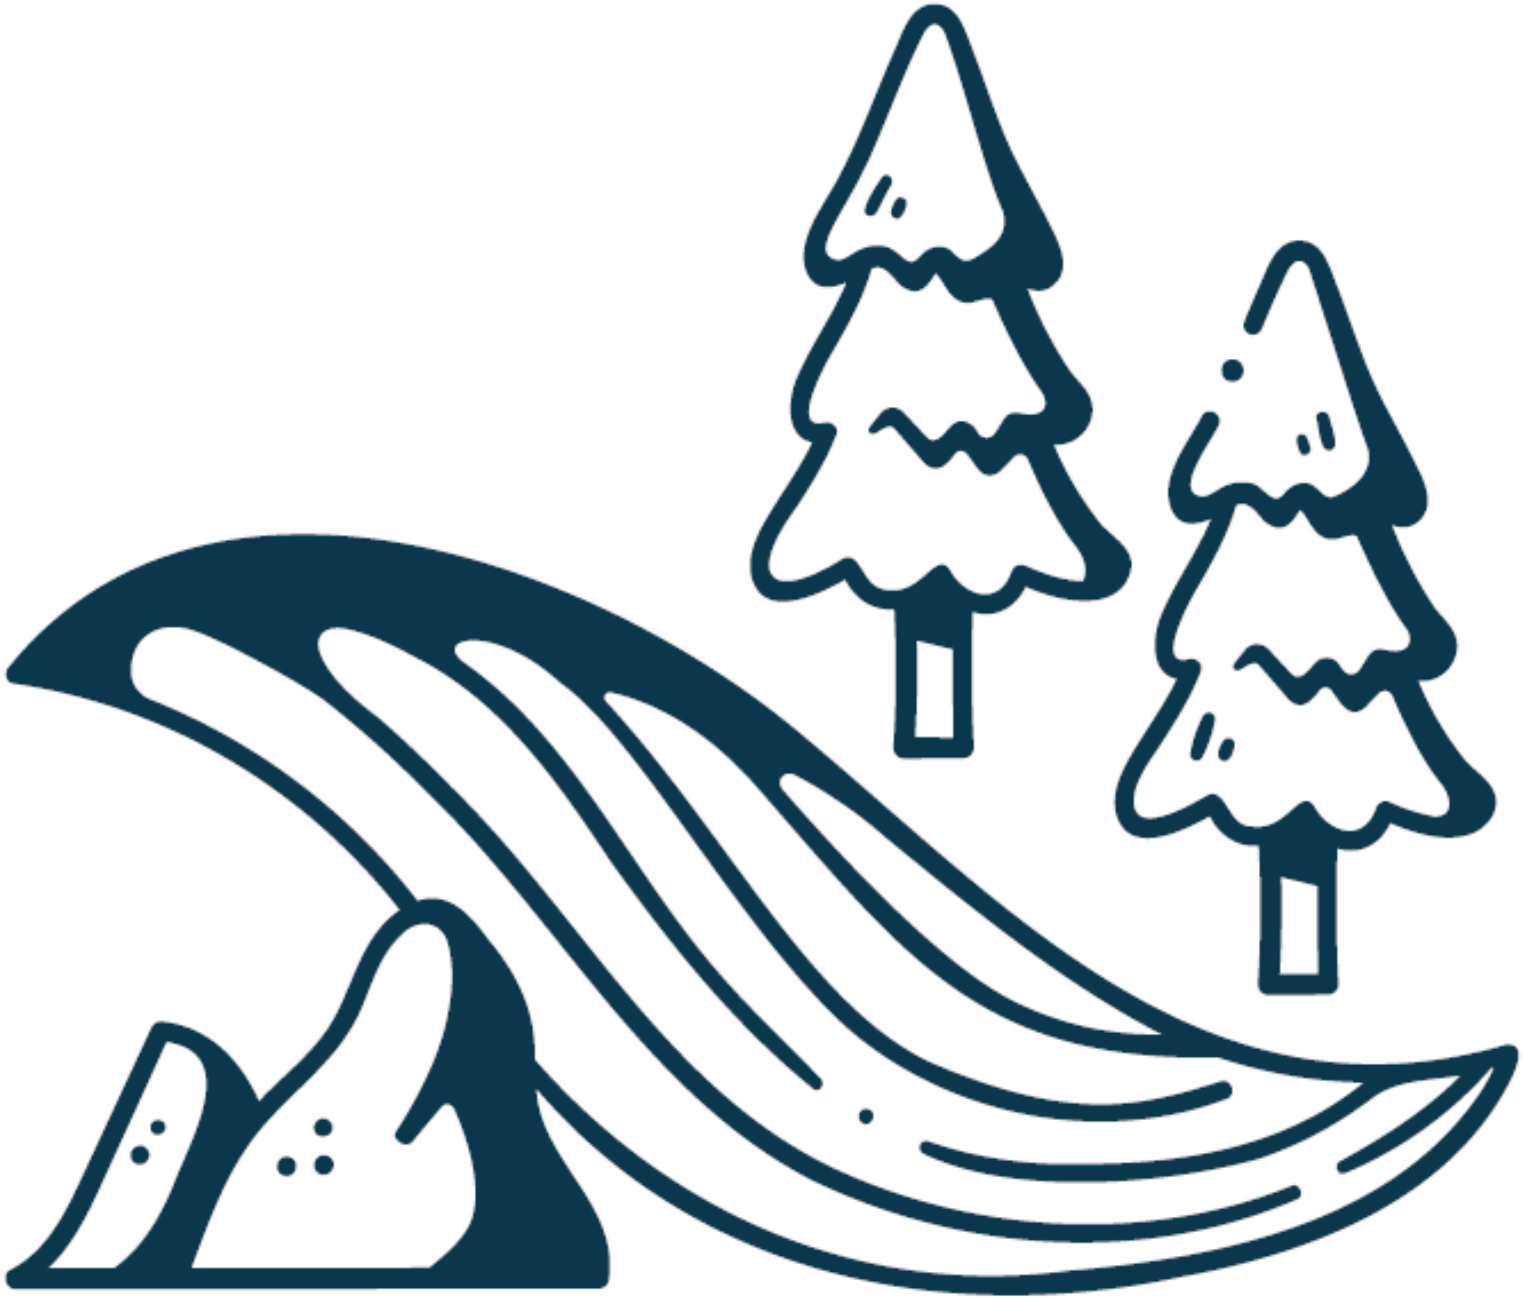

Talk with someone in your family about something in the world that is so unfair that it makes you angry or confused.

Ask your grown ups about something that they see in the world that makes them angry or confused.

ACT

Together as a family, do one thing that may help raise awareness about the issue that you all are angry or confused about.

Some examples: write a letter to lawmakers, make a video to share online, call your senator, talk about this issue with others, etc.

Today's story talks about rivers and streams. Color yours here!
